

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

JENNIFER KONCZAL,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 19-12275

ZIM TIM, LLC, a Michigan
Limited Liability Company,

Defendant.

ORDER EXTENDING DATES, SETTING A TELEPHONE CONFERENCE, AND TERMINATING WITHOUT PREJUDICE MOTION TO COMPEL

Before the court is a stipulation of the parties seeking to extend dates. The court will adopt the dates proposed by the parties, with a few adjustments. The parties base their request on Administrative Order 20-AO-021 (2020), which postponed in-person court appearances in the Eastern District of Michigan based on the outbreak and spread of the Coronavirus Disease (COVID-19). The court agrees that, consistent with the goals of the Administrative Order, it is prudent to also limit out of court work in an effort to prevent the spread of the disease and in accordance with recommendations from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. The parties are specifically instructed to monitor the court's website to determine when the restrictions imposed by Administrative Order 20-AO-021 are lifted, at which point the parties shall immediately reconvene and recommence diligent discovery efforts. In the meantime,

IT IS ORDERED that the discovery cutoff is ADJOURNED for 60 days after the restrictions in Administrative Order 20-AO-021 are lifted, the dispositive motion cutoff is similarly ADJOURNED for 30 days after the discovery cutoff, and all remaining dates in the Scheduling Order will, at a later date, be adjusted accordingly.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties shall appear for a telephonic status conference on October 1, 2020, at 9:30 am to discuss the status of the case. The telephone conference may be canceled in the event Administrative Order 20-AO-021 is amended or vacated before that time and the case is back in progress.

Finally, IT IS ORDERED that Plaintiff's Motion to Compel (ECF # 23) is TERMINATED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. If still necessary, Plaintiff may bring the motion again after the Administrative Order restrictions are lifted. The parties are free, of course, to continue discovery to the extent possible and by agreement.
